GREENVILLE ZOO TO CLOSE FOR MAINTENANCE FEBRUARY 1

Greenville, S.C. – The Greenville Zoo will close to the general public beginning February 1 for two weeks of maintenance. Zoo staff, City of Greenville departments and volunteers will team up to clean, paint and make necessary repairs to areas within the 14-acre Zoo.

The Zoo will reopen February 13 at 10 a.m. with special opportunities for guests over the three-day holiday weekend. Normal operating hours for the Zoo are 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Sunday. For more information about the Greenville Zoo, please visit www.greenvillezoo.com.

About Greenville Zoo

Rated one of the best tourist attractions in South Carolina, the Greenville Zoo is an exotic animal kingdom located in downtown Greenville. Operated by the City of Greenville, the 14-acre facility features wildlife from around the world including giraffes, monkeys, giant tortoises and elephants. Visitors can also enjoy one of the Zoo's most popular exhibits, the Reptile Building, which is home to a variety of lizards, frogs, turtles and snakes. Additional attractions include Cleveland Park which features a children's playground, picnic tables, walking paths and plenty of wide open green spaces.
